Dear Sir/Madam,

Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Request – 1801070055

Thank you for your request received on 7 January 2018 in which you asked for the following information from the Ministry of Justice (MoJ):

I would like to refine my search and restrict it to this aspect of my original request:

“Please provide copies of any Equality reviews or analyses conducted on the work of the Court of Appeal.”

Your request has been handled under the FOIA.

The MoJ does not hold any information in the scope of your request. This is because there is no legal or business requirement for MoJ to do so. The Court of Appeal Criminal and Civil divisions have both advised that they are not aware of any equality reviews or analyses on the work of the Court of Appeal. There has never been any requirement for such a review or analysis to be undertaken, and the electronic case management system do not yet have the reporting tools in place to perform such a review or analysis.

The FOIA does not oblige a public authority to create information to answer a request if the requested information is not held. The duty is to only provide the recorded information held.

Appeal Rights

If you are not satisfied with this response you have the right to request an internal review by responding in writing to one of the addresses below within two months of the date of this response.
