

Case Review pilot process evaluation

Advisory Working Group meeting

7th September 2018

Evaluation

- ▶ Pilot completed June 2018
- ▶ Evaluation report being drafted
- ▶ Case Reviews still being carried out

Future steps

- ▶ Will share headline findings
- ▶ Subject to the report's findings, we intend to continue with case reviews and at that point we will seek views of a wide range of stakeholders

Themes

We are seeking your views about two emerging themes:

- ▶ Terminology
- ▶ Is 'Case Review' the best way to describe the process:
  - ▶ Does this imply that this relates to an individual?
  - ▶ Does this imply a remedy?
  - ▶ Does this best describe the process of learning and improvement?
  - ▶ What are your reflections
  - ▶ What alternatives do you have?
- ▶ Scope
- ▶ Should case reviews focus on an individual case or look at emerging themes:
  - ▶ Should Case Reviews relate to a specific case?
  - ▶ Should they look at themes?
  - ▶ If so how should priorities be determined?
  - ▶ What are your reflections?
  - ▶ What are your suggestions?
